Consequently, save as provided above, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the "PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the N&C Securities or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA or in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the N&C Securities or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA or in the UK may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

This document constitutes the Final Terms of the N&C Securities described herein for the purposes of Article 5.4 of the Prospectus Regulation and must be read in conjunction with the Base Prospectus in order to obtain all the relevant information. The Base Prospectus has been published on the website of Euronext Dublin (www.ise.ie) and the Issuer's website (<http://www.santander.co.uk>). The payout policy

The N&C Securities are designed to provide a return in the form of a cash payment on redemption (i.e. the Final Redemption Amount as described below). The timing and amount of the redemption payment will depend directly on the value of the Preference Shares and indirectly on the performance of the Preference Share Underlying (as described below).

"Preference Share Underlying" means the FTSE 100 Index.

This product is designed to repay an N&C Securityholder's Initial Investment plus an additional amount if the Index increases over the term and can finish early if the Index is at or above the Starting Level on any of the Annual Observation Dates outlined below. If this happens, the Issuer will return a N&C Securityholder's Initial Investment plus the relevant customer return as stated below for that year.

If the Index has never finished at or above the Starting Level on any Annual Observation Date during the term, the plan will finish returning the N&C Securityholder's Initial Investment only, providing the Final Level of the Index has not fallen by 40% or more. If the Final Level of the Index has fallen by 40% or more from its Starting Level, the N&C Securityholder's Initial Investment will be reduced in line with the fall of the Index.

An investor's return on the N&C Securities will be based on the processes described in 'Final Redemption' and 'Early Redemption' (if applicable).

The Starting Level of the Index will be taken as the closing level of the Index on 11 May 2020.

The Final Level of the Index will be taken as the closing level of the Index on 11 May 2026, subject to the plan not finishing early.

12 May 2025	150.00 per cent. of Initial Investment and the N&C Securities redeem
11 May 2026	160.00 per cent. of Initial Investment and the N&C Securities redeem

If the Final Level of the Index has fallen by less than 40% from the Initial Level, the N&C Securityholder will be repaid its Initial Investment only. If the Final Level of the Index has fallen by more than 40% there will be a loss to the N&C Securityholder in line with the fall in the Index.

Where will the N&C Securities be traded?

Application for N&C Securities has been made for listing on the Official List of Euronext Dublin and for admission to trading on the Euronext Dublin's regulated market.

What are the key risks that are specific to the N&C Securities?

The N&C Securities are subject to the following key risks:

- investors in the N&C Securities may lose up to the entire value of their investment in the N&C Securities as a result of the occurrence of any of (a) a decrease in the value of the Preference Shares to which the N&C Security is linked, (b) the insolvency of the Issuer, (c) investors seeking to sell the N&C Securities prior to their scheduled redemption, and (d) amounts payable being subject to deductions for taxes and/or expenses;
- unlike a bank deposit, the N&C Securities are not protected by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme ("FSCS") or other government protection scheme. As a result, neither the FSCS nor any other government will pay compensation to an investor in the N&C Securities upon the failure of the Issuer;
- the value of and return on the N&C Securities depends on the performance of the underlying Preference Shares and therefore subject to risks in relation to the Preference Shares and the relevant Preference Share Underlying. Past performance of the Preference Shares or the relevant Preference Share Underlying is not indicative of future performance;
- the value of the Preference Shares will be linked to the economic performance of the relevant Preference Share Underlying. The performance of the Preference Shares may be dependent on the level of or changes in the level of an index or a basket of indices ("Index Linked Preference Shares"). The market price of N&C Securities linked to Index Linked Preference Shares may be volatile and may depend on the time remaining to the redemption date and the volatility of the level of the index or indices. The level of the index or indices may be affected by the economic, financial and political events in one or more jurisdictions, including the stock exchange(s) or quotation system(s) on which any securities notionally comprising the index or indices may be traded;
- the N&C Securities may redeem early due to the occurrence of an unexpected event. Should this occur, investors may receive less than their original investment, and may not be able to invest the redemption proceeds to achieve a potential return similar to the potential return available under the N&C Securities;
- the N&C Securities will have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop, or the N&C Securities may be illiquid. Investors may not be able to sell their N&C Securities or may only be able to sell at an unfavourable price; and
- the Issue Price of the N&C Securities may be more than the market value as at the Issue Date, and the price of the N&C Securities in secondary market transactions.
