

SANTANDER UK PLC
(the Ring-Fenced Bank (“RFB”))

BOARD AUDIT COMMITTEE
(the “Committee”)

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Approved by the Company Secretary with effect from 1 January 2024 (under authority delegated by the Board of Directors of Santander UK plc (the “Board”) on 15 December 2023).

1. PURPOSE

1.1 The purpose of the Committee is to review and monitor, for the RFB, its subsidiaries and subsidiary undertakings (together the “RFB Sub-group”), the:

1.1.1 Integrity of the RFB financial statements, and related announcements.

1.1.2 Effectiveness of related internal financial controls including those over capital and liquidity regulatory reporting.

1.1.3 Audit scope and statutory audit of the annual and half year financial statements.

1.1.4 External Auditor's independence, and objectivity and the effectiveness of the audit process.

1.1.5 Effectiveness of the Internal Audit function.

1.1.6 Effectiveness of whistleblowing arrangements.

1.1.7 Recovery and Resolution planning.

2. RESPONSIBILITIES

The key responsibilities of the Committee are to:

2.1 Financial Reporting

2.1.1 Monitor and review the integrity of the financial statements of the RFB including its annual and half-yearly reports and any other formal announcement relating to its financial performance.

2.1.2 Review the significant financial reporting issues and judgments and estimates contained in the financial statements of the RFB.

2.1.3 Report to the Board significant financial reporting issues and judgements they contain.

2.1.4 Review any financial information contained in other relevant documents, such as announcements of a price sensitive nature.

2.1.5 Review and challenge where necessary:

- i) the consistency of, and any changes to, significant accounting policies on a year on year basis across the RFB Sub-group;
- ii) the methods used to account for significant or unusual transactions where different approaches are possible;
- iii) whether the RFB Sub-group has followed appropriate accounting standards and made appropriate estimates and judgements, considering views of the external auditor;

- iv) the clarity and completeness of disclosure in the RFB's financial reports and the context in which statements are made; and
 - v) all material information presented with the financial statements, such as the business and financial review and the corporate governance statement.
- 2.1.6 Where the Committee is not satisfied with any aspect of the proposed financial reporting by the RFB, it shall report its views to the RFB Board.
- 2.1.7 Review the content of the annual report and accounts including the going concern assumptions and the viability statement and advise the Board on whether, taken as a whole, it is fair, balanced and understandable and provides the information necessary for shareholders to assess the RFB's performance, business model and strategy.
- 2.1.8 In relation to regulatory financial reporting, consider regulatory controls or reports commissioned by the Committee from the external auditor reports (including but not limited to those required in accordance with the Client Assets Sourcebook).
- 2.2 Non-Financial Reporting
- 2.2.1 Monitor and review non-financial reporting (including any within the Strategic Report, the Corporate Governance statement, the Directors' Report, the ESG Supplement and any others that come within scope) of the RFB including its annual and half-yearly reports and relevant quarterly management statements together with the Investor Updates and any other formal announcement relating to its non-financial performance taking into account reports from other committees including Responsible Banking Committee, Board Risk Committee and Remuneration Committee where those committees have primary responsibility for considering and approving the relevant content.
- 2.2.2 Report to the Board significant non-financial reporting issues and judgements the Annual Reports and Accounts, Half Year Accounts, Quarterly Management Statement and Investor Update contain.
- 2.3 Internal Financial Controls
- 2.3.1 Review the adequacy and effectiveness of the RFB Sub-group's systems for internal financial control and financial reporting.
- 2.3.2 Set the objectives of the Chief Financial Officer and annually review performance against those objectives.
- 2.4 Whistleblowing
- 2.4.1 In consultation with the HoldCo Board Audit Committee, review, adopt and oversee the implementation of the HoldCo Whistleblowing Policies and Frameworks, with such amendments as reasonably required to reflect the best interest and circumstances of the RFB Sub-group (ensuring compliance with applicable law and regulation).
- 2.4.2 Review the adequacy and security of the RFB Sub-group's arrangements for its employees and contractors to raise concerns about possible wrongdoing in financial reporting or other matters and to ensure the confidentiality, protection and fair treatment of whistleblowers.
- 2.4.3 Ensure that these arrangements allow proportionate and independent investigation of such matters and appropriate follow-up action.
- 2.4.4 Receive biannual reports from the Head of Whistleblowing on whistleblowing matters, including material instances of disclosure and where appropriate reports to the regulator.

2.5 Internal Audit

2.5.1 Monitor, review and evaluate the effectiveness of the RFB's Internal Audit function.

2.5.2 In respect of the Chief Internal Auditor ("CIA"):

- i) approve their appointment and removal; and
- ii) participate in setting their objectives and annually review their performance against those objectives.

2.5.3 Consider and approve the remit of the Internal Audit function in so far as it relates to the RFB Sub-group. Ensure it has adequate resources, has appropriate access to information to enable it to perform its function effectively and in accordance with the relevant professional standards. The Committee shall also ensure the function has adequate standing, suitable expertise and experience, and is free from the influence of management or other restrictions.

2.5.4 Review and recommend for approval to the Board the RFB's annual Internal Audit plan.

2.5.5 Receive regular reports on the findings of the Internal Audit function's work.

2.5.6 Review and monitor management's responsiveness to the findings and recommendations of the Internal Audit function.

2.5.7 Meet the Chief Internal Auditor at least once a year, without management being present, to discuss their remit and any issues arising from the internal audits carried out in respect of the RFB Sub-group. In addition, the Chief Internal Auditor shall be given the right of direct access to the Chair of the Board and the Committee Chair.

2.5.8 Obtain an independent external assessment of the Internal Audit function at least once every five years in accordance with the Chartered Institute of Internal Auditor Standards.

2.6 External Audit

2.6.1 Recommend to the RFB Board (for subsequent approval by the shareholder) the appointment, re-appointment and removal of the RFB's External Auditor. The Committee shall oversee the selection process for a new auditor, whilst having due regard to any Group-wide audit tender. If an External Auditor resigns the Committee shall investigate the issues leading to this and decide whether any action is required.

2.6.2 Oversee the relationship with the External Auditor including (but not limited to):

- i) approval of their remuneration and terms of engagement (including any engagement letter issued at the start of each audit) and the scope of the audit;
- ii) considering whether fees (and the level of fees) for audit or non-audit services are appropriate to enable an effective and high-quality audit to be conducted;
- iii) regularly reviewing their independence and objectivity considering relevant UK professional and regulatory requirements and the relationship with the external auditor as a whole, including the provision of non-audit services;
- iv) satisfying itself that there are no relationships (such as family, employment, investment, financial or business) between the auditor and the RFB Sub-group (other than in the ordinary course of business) which could adversely affect the auditor's independence and objectivity;
- v) monitoring compliance with a policy on the employment of former employees of the RFB Sub-group's External Auditor;

- vi) monitoring the External Auditor's compliance with relevant ethical and professional guidance on the rotation of audit partners, the level of fees paid by the RFB compared to the overall fee income of the firm, office and partner and other related requirements;
 - vii) developing and implementing a policy on the supply of non-audit services by the External Auditor to avoid any threat to auditor objectivity and independence, considering any relevant ethical guidance on the matter. Monitoring compliance with the policy including approval of all non-audit fees and considering any risks and safeguards in relation to the External Auditors independence;
 - viii) assessing annually the qualifications, expertise and resources of the External Auditor and the effectiveness of the audit process, which shall include a report from the external auditor on its own internal quality procedures; and
 - ix) monitoring co-ordination of activities with the Internal Audit function.
- 2.6.3 Meet regularly with the External Auditor including, at least once a year, without management being present, to discuss the External Auditor's remit and any issues arising from the audit.
- 2.6.4 Review and approve the annual external audit plan and ensure that it is consistent with the scope of the audit engagement.
- 2.6.5 Review the findings of the audit with the External Auditor. This shall include but not be limited to the following:
- i) a discussion of any major issues which arose during the audit, including whether they have been subsequently resolved or remain unresolved;
 - ii) any key accounting and audit judgements;
 - iii) levels of errors identified during the audit and consideration as to whether they are individually or in aggregate material for adjustment; and
 - iv) the effectiveness of the audit process.
 - v) Review the management letter and management's response to the auditor's findings and recommendations.
- 2.6.6 Review representation letters relating to financial statements requested by the External Auditor before they are signed by management.
- 2.7 Other Matters
- 2.7.1 Review the Resolvability Assessment Framework, the Recovery Plan and Resolution Pack.
- 2.7.2 Upon request, the Committee will support the Board Remuneration Committee in exercising its discretion regarding remuneration risk adjustments.
- 2.7.3 In consultation with the HoldCo Board Audit Committee, review, adopt and oversee the implementation of the HoldCo Tax Strategy as applicable to the RFB Sub-group.
- 2.7.4 Request a summary of significant issues considered by audit committees of the material subsidiaries within the RFB Sub-group and review reports referred by their respective committee chairs.
