Inheritance ISA

Key Facts Document (including Specific Conditions, Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) Information sheet & Exclusions List)

Effective from 11 August 2025

The Financial Conduct Authority is a financial services regulator. It requires us, Santander UK plc, to give you this important information to help you decide whether our Inheritance ISAs are right for you. You should read this document carefully so that you understand what you are buying and then keep it safe for future reference.

The table below sets out specific conditions for the account. These conditions apply as well as the general terms.

The other information in this Key Facts Document does not form part of our agreement with you.

Summary box
Account name	Inheritance ISA
What is the interest rate?	Interest rate
	2.70% AER/tax-free (variable)
	◦ We work out the interest we'll pay on your account each day. ◦ We pay interest into the account once a year in March.
Can Santander change the interest rate?	Yes, we can change the interest rate on this account as explained in the general terms.
What would the estimated balance be after 12 months based on a £1,000 deposit?	Account name	Interest earned	Balance after 12 months
	Inheritance ISA	£27.00	£1,027.00
	To work out the estimated balance, we've assumed that: ◦ The account is opened and the initial payment into the account is made on the 1st day of the month. ◦ You don't pay in any more money or take any out. ◦ There is no change to the interest rate. This illustration is only an example and doesn't take into account your individual circumstances.

The tax-free rate is the rate of interest payable where interest is exempt from income tax.

AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and shows what the interest rate would be if we paid interest and added it to your account each year.

How do I open and manage my account?

Eligibility

You can open this cash ISA to use an Additional Permitted Subscription (APS) if you're 18 or over and a UK resident. You can only open this account in your sole name – joint ISAs are not allowed. You can only have one of these accounts.

An APS is an additional ISA allowance above the normal ISA allowance which you can use if:

- your spouse or civil partner died, and
- you were living with them at the time of their death, you weren't legally separated, or you weren't separated in circumstances where the separation was likely to become permanent.

Where the deceased held ISAs with a number of different providers, you'll have APS allowances with each provider.

How to open the account

You can apply for this account at a branch.

If your deceased spouse had an ISA with another ISA provider, you'll have to complete an APS transfer form to transfer in the additional allowance from that provider. You can only do that if you haven't already made an APS deposit with that provider.

Managing the account

You can only manage your account at a branch.

Paying money in

You can pay money in at a branch or by post and must be accompanied by a completed APS Additional Permitted Subscription Eligibility Declaration Form. You can't transfer in any existing ISA funds.

- Minimum balance: None.
- Maximum balance: How much you can save depends on the date of the deceased ISA holder's death:

Date of death	Amount you can save
On or before 5 April 2018	The value of the deceased's ISA savings at the date of their death.
On or after 6 April 2018	Whichever value is higher: ◦ The deceased's ISA savings at the date of their death, or ◦ The deceased's ISA savings at the point the ISA wrapper is removed (this happens on the earlier of the completion of the administration of the estate, the closure of the ISA or the third anniversary of the death). But if you have used any of your APS allowance or you transfer the allowance to another provider before the wrapper is removed, you'll no longer be able to benefit from a higher allowance at the point the wrapper is removed.

To use this account, you must pay in any APS deposits within:

- 3 years of the date of the death, or
- 180 days of completion of the administration of the estate, whichever date is later.

Once you've made an APS deposit to this cash ISA, any further APS deposits towards the particular APS allowance you have with us must be made into this cash ISA. You can't transfer any unused APS allowance to another ISA provider. But, if the deceased held ISAs with a number of different providers, you'll have APS allowances with each provider.

Can I withdraw money?	Yes, you can take money out of your account in a branch. This ISA is not flexible. That means that if you take money out of this cash ISA, it'll lose its tax-free status. If you pay it back in again, it'll count towards your APS allowance. But if you pay it into another ISA, not as an APS deposit, it will count towards your current tax year's ISA limit. You can also transfer your cash ISA (in full or in part) to another Santander cash ISA or to another provider by contacting the new ISA provider.
Additional information	Tell us if you change your mind You can cancel your account at any time during your 'cancellation period' – we won't charge you for it. This is 14 days, starting the day after we confirmed your account is open. If you do this, we'll return your money together with any interest we owe you. We'll do this as soon as we can (and within 30 days from when you tell us). It isn't possible to cancel a transfer of an APS once the transfer process is completed. You can also close your account at any other time outside this cancellation period – we won't charge you. Tax status An ISA allows you to earn interest on your savings without paying tax. That means any interest you receive won't contribute towards your Personal Savings Allowance. ISAs are subject to the Individual Savings Account Regulations 1998 and other government rules. If you don't follow those rules, your ISA might become 'void' and you may need to pay tax on interest paid. Statements and other information We'll send you a statement once a year in March. We'll send you a certificate or email confirmation after you've opened the account.

Additional information

¹ Scheme responsible for the protection of your eligible deposit

Your eligible deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your bank, building society or credit union should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to £85,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

² General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a bank, building society or credit union is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by a Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers at maximum £85,000 per bank, building society or credit union. This means that all eligible deposits at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance a depositor holds a savings account with £80,000 and a current account with £20,000, he or she will only be repaid £85,000.

This method will also be applied if a bank, building society or credit union operates under different trading names. Santander UK plc also trades under cahoot, Santander Business and Santander Corporate & Commercial trading names.

In some cases eligible deposits which are categorised as 'temporary high balances' are protected above £85,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. These are eligible deposits connected with certain events including:

- (a) certain transactions relating to the depositor's current or prospective only or main residence or dwelling;
- (b) a death, or the depositor's marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, dismissal, redundancy or invalidity;
- (c) the payment to the depositor of insurance benefits or compensation for criminal injuries or wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under <http://www.fscs.org.uk>

³ Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of £85,000 applies to each depositor.

However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of £85,000.

⁴ Reimbursement

The responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme is the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, 10th Floor Beaufort House, 15 St Botolph Street, London, EC3A 7QU, Tel: 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100, Email: ICT@fscs.org.uk. It will repay your eligible deposits (up to £85,000) within 20 working days until 31 December 2018; within 15 working days from 1 January 2019 until 31 December 2020; within 10 working days from 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2023; and within 7 working days from 1 January 2024 onwards, save where specific exceptions apply.

Where the FSCS cannot make the repayable amount available within 7 working days, it will, from 1 June 2016 until 31 December 2023, ensure that you have access to an appropriate amount of your covered deposits to cover the cost of living (in the case of a depositor which is an individual) or to cover necessary business expenses or operating costs (in the case of a depositor which is not an individual or a large company) within 5 working days of a request.

If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should contact the Deposit Guarantee Scheme since the time to claim reimbursement may be barred after a certain time limit. Further information can be obtained under <http://www.fscs.org.uk>.

Other important information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by Deposit Guarantee Schemes. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your bank, building society or credit union will also inform you of any exclusions from protection which may apply. If deposits are eligible, the bank, building society or credit union shall also confirm this on the statement of account.
