Account name	Select Easy Access Saver (Issue 1)
What is the interest rate?	If interest is paid annually	If interest is paid monthly
	2.50% AER/gross (variable) for 12 months from account opening	2.50% AER/2.47% gross (variable) for 12 months from account opening
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">◦ We work out the interest we'll pay on your account each day.◦ You can choose whether you want us to pay interest monthly or yearly into your account. Once you've chosen, you can't change your mind. We'll pay the interest on the monthly or yearly anniversary of the day you opened the account.
Can Santander change the interest rate?	Yes, we can change the interest rate on this account as explained in the general terms.
What would the estimated balance be after 12 months based on a £1,000 deposit?	Account name	Interest earned	Balance after 12 months
	Select Easy Access Saver (Issue 1)	£25.00	£1,025.00
	To work out the estimated balance, we've assumed that: <ul style="list-style-type: none">◦ The account is opened and the initial payment into the account is made on the 1st day of the month.◦ You don't pay in any more money or take any out.◦ We pay interest yearly back into the account.◦ There is no change to the interest rate. This illustration is only an example and doesn't take into account your individual circumstances.

AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and shows what the interest rate would be if we paid interest and added it to your account each year. The gross rate is the interest rate we pay where no income tax has been taken off.

Our rights under our agreement with you

The general terms and conditions set also out our relationship with you and explain how your account will operate. Under those terms, we have a number of rights that you should be aware of. These include:

- Refusing or delaying payments

- We can refuse to make a payment from your account or to accept a payment into your account for various reasons. These are set out in the general terms and conditions and include a number of reasons related to concerns about possible scams, fraud or the security of your account.
- We can also delay payments while we investigate. This could mean you're late in paying someone you need to pay.
- If we remain concerned, we may refuse to make the payment even if you have checked it and confirmed you want it to go ahead.

- Blocking access to your account

- We can block access to your account for various reasons, including if we have concerns about security or fraud. We can also block access if you don't give us information we need from you.
- We may retain money in your account and not pay it to you in some situations. We'll only do this if another person claims that the money belongs to them or you don't address any concerns we have about the origin of the money.
- We can block a third party provider from accessing your account if we think they don't have consent or are acting fraudulently.

- Taking money out of your account

- We can take money out of your account in a number of situations set out in the general terms and conditions.
- We can do this if we paid you the money by mistake or if we think you received the money from someone else by mistake and we're asked to return it.
- We can also do it if we paid you a refund and then find out you weren't entitled to it.
- We can take money from your account to repay amounts you owe us or another Santander company.

- Changing or ending the agreement

- We can change the interest rate (unless it's fixed), fees or other terms at any time by giving you notice. The reasons when we can do this are set out in the general terms and conditions.
- We can end this agreement immediately for various reasons set out in the general terms and conditions, including if you break the agreement, are abusive to our staff or misuse your account.
- We may ask you to repay any overdraft you have immediately at any time but we'll usually give you notice.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) Information Sheet

If Santander UK plc should go into insolvency, eligible deposits are protected by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme ('FSCS') and would be repaid up to £120,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

Limit of protection

£120,000 per depositor, per bank

cahoot, Santander Business and Santander Corporate & Commercial are all trading names of Santander UK plc.

All eligible deposits at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up to determine the coverage level. For example, if you hold a savings account with £80,000 and a current account with £50,000, FSCS will pay you £120,000 and you may lose £10,000.

So the FSCS can pay you promptly, please make sure we have your up-to-date contact details, including your email address.

If you have a joint account with other people

For joint accounts, the limit of £120,000 applies to each depositor separately. For example, if there are 2 account holders, you'll each be entitled to £120,000 protection, giving a total of £240,000.

Your small business, limited company or charity will need to meet certain eligibility criteria to claim compensation with the FSCS. We assess eligibility on a case-by-case basis and it varies for different types of claim. Legal status will affect eligibility, e.g. if you're an individual or incorporated entity (such as a corporation or limited partnership).

Charitable status is never relevant to eligibility. To check if you're protected visit fscs.org.uk/making-a-claim/claims-process/small-business

Temporary high balances

If you have a 'temporary high balance' you might be entitled to more than £120,000 protection for 6 months from when the amount was first deposited or legally transferred. Temporary high balances are deposits connected with certain events, including:

- (a) transactions relating to the purchase and sale of your main home
- (b) major life events such as death, your marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, redundancy, disability, or incapacity
- (c) compensation for personal injuries or wrongful conviction.

How the FSCS will pay you

The FSCS will typically return deposits within 7 business days, by cheque or electronic payment into an alternative account. Payments may take longer in exceptional circumstances. For example, if there's a temporary high balance, or the deposit is held on behalf of underlying beneficiaries.

FSCS exclusions list

As set out in the Depositor Protection Information Sheet, deposits held by individuals and businesses will be generally eligible for FSCS protection up to the compensation limit. However, some exclusions do apply. Details of the most common exclusions are set out below. For full details of the exclusions, please see the Depositor Protection Part of the PRA Rulebook or fscs.org.uk

A deposit is excluded from protection if it meets any of the following criteria.

(1) The depositor is one of the following:

- credit institution
- financial institution
- investment firm
- insurance undertaking
- reinsurance undertaking
- collective investment undertaking
- pension or retirement fund
- public authority, other than a small local authority.

Note that:

- a) deposits held on behalf of underlying beneficiaries who are eligible for FSCS protection aren't excluded
 - b) personal pension schemes, stakeholder pension schemes or occupational pension schemes for micro, small and medium sized companies aren't excluded.
- (2) Deposits not held at a UK establishment of a bank, building society or credit union. Or, in the case of a bank, building society or credit union incorporated in the UK, it isn't held at an establishment in Gibraltar.
- (3) Deposits linked to money laundering. For example, it's transferred from an account held by someone who's been convicted of money laundering.
