

The interest rate on Inheritance ISA will go down to 2.45% AER/tax-free (variable) on 11 May 2026

We're writing to let you know that the interest rate on your Inheritance ISA will go down from 2.70% AER/tax-free (variable) to 2.45% AER/tax-free (variable) on 11 May 2026.

Account name	Inheritance ISA
Before 11 May 2026	2.70% AER/tax-free (variable)
From 11 May 2026	2.45% AER/tax-free (variable)

AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and shows what the interest rate would be if we paid interest and added it to your account each year. The tax free rate is the rate of interest payable where interest is exempt from income tax.

Why is it going down?

Your account has a variable interest rate which means it can go up and down. We're reducing the interest rate because of changes in the interest rates we receive.

Same account benefits

Nothing else is changing. You won't be losing any of the other account features that you benefit from, including help online, in branch, or over the phone if you need it.

What to do next

You don't need to do anything if you want to carry on using your account. We'll make the change automatically.

If you're not happy with this change, you can close your account without any cost before or after the change becomes effective. This change takes effect on 11 May 2026, so there's plenty of time for you to decide if the account is still right for you.

If your account is no longer right for you, you can open another savings account and move your balance. We offer a range of savings products which you can open online or in branch. Take a look at our savings accounts and ISAs by visiting santander.co.uk/personal/savings-and-isas

How do I open and manage my account?

Eligibility

You can open this cash ISA to use an Additional Permitted Subscription (APS) if you're 18 or over and a UK resident. You can only open this account in your sole name – joint ISAs are not allowed. You can only have one of these accounts.

An APS is an additional ISA allowance above the normal ISA allowance which you can use if:

- your spouse or civil partner died, and
- you were living with them at the time of their death, you weren't legally separated, or you weren't separated in circumstances where the separation was likely to become permanent.

Where the deceased held ISAs with a number of different providers, you'll have APS allowances with each provider.

How to open the account

You can apply for this account at a branch.

If your deceased spouse had an ISA with another ISA provider, you'll have to complete an APS transfer form to transfer in the additional allowance from that provider. You can only do that if you haven't already made an APS deposit with that provider.

Managing the account

You can only manage your account at a branch.

Paying money in

You can pay money in at a branch or by post and must be accompanied by a completed APS Additional Permitted Subscription Eligibility Declaration Form. You can't transfer in any existing ISA funds.

- Minimum balance: None.
- Maximum balance: How much you can save depends on the date of the deceased ISA holder's death:

Date of death	Amount you can save
On or before 5 April 2018	The value of the deceased's ISA savings at the date of their death.
On or after 6 April 2018	Whichever value is higher: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ The deceased's ISA savings at the date of their death, or ◦ The deceased's ISA savings at the point the ISA wrapper is removed (this happens on the earlier of the completion of the administration of the estate, the closure of the ISA or the third anniversary of the death). But if you have used any of your APS allowance before the wrapper is removed, you'll no longer be able to benefit from a higher allowance at the point the wrapper is removed.

To use this account, you must pay in any APS deposits within:

- 3 years of the date of the death, or
- 180 days of completion of the administration of the estate, whichever date is later.

Once you've made an APS deposit to this cash ISA, you can't transfer any unused APS allowance to another ISA provider. But, if the deceased held ISAs with a number of different providers, you'll have APS allowances with each provider.

Can I withdraw money?	Yes, you can take money out of your account in a branch. This ISA is not flexible. That means that if you take money out of this cash ISA, it'll lose its tax-free status. If you pay it back in again, it'll count towards your APS allowance. But if you pay it into another ISA, not as an APS deposit, it will count towards your current tax year's ISA limit. You can also transfer your cash ISA (in full or in part) to another Santander cash ISA or to another provider by contacting the new ISA provider.
Additional information	Tell us if you change your mind You can cancel your account at any time during your 'cancellation period' – we won't charge you for it. This is 14 days, starting the day after we confirmed your account is open. If you do this, we'll return your money together with any interest we owe you. We'll do this as soon as we can (and within 30 days from when you tell us). It isn't possible to cancel a transfer of an APS once the transfer process is completed. You can also close your account at any other time outside this cancellation period – we won't charge you. Tax status An ISA allows you to earn interest on your savings without paying tax. That means any interest you receive won't contribute towards your Personal Savings Allowance. ISAs are subject to the Individual Savings Account Regulations 1998 and other government rules. If you don't follow those rules, your ISA might become 'void' and you may need to pay tax on interest paid. Statements and other information We'll send you a statement once a year. We'll send you a certificate or email confirmation after you've opened the account.

Our rights under our agreement with you

The general terms and conditions set out our relationship with you and explain how your account will operate. Under those terms, we have a number of rights that you should be aware of. These include:

- Refusing or delaying payments
 - We can refuse to make a payment from your account or to accept a payment into your account for various reasons. These are set out in the general terms and conditions and include a number of reasons related to concerns about possible scams, fraud or the security of your account.
 - We can also delay payments while we investigate. This could mean you're late in paying someone you need to pay.
 - If we remain concerned, we may refuse to make the payment even if you have checked it and confirmed you want it to go ahead.
- Blocking access to your account
 - We can block access to your account for various reasons, including if we have concerns about security or fraud. We can also block access if you don't give us information we need from you.
 - We may retain money in your account and not pay it to you in some situations. We'll only do this if another person claims that the money belongs to them or you don't address any concerns we have about the origin of the money.
 - We can block a third party provider from accessing your account if we think they don't have consent or are acting fraudulently.
- Taking money out of your account
 - We can take money out of your account in a number of situations set out in the general terms and conditions.
 - We can do this if we paid you the money by mistake or if we think you received the money from someone else by mistake and we're asked to return it.
 - We can also do it if we paid you a refund and then find out you weren't entitled to it.
 - We can take money from your account to repay amounts you owe us or another Santander company.
- Changing or ending the agreement
 - We can change the interest rate (unless it's fixed), fees or other terms at any time by giving you notice. The reasons when we can do this are set out in the general terms and conditions.
 - We can end this agreement immediately for various reasons set out in the general terms and conditions, including if you break the agreement, are abusive to our staff or misuse your account.
 - We may ask you to repay any overdraft you have immediately at any time but we'll usually give you notice.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) Information Sheet

If Santander UK plc should go into insolvency, eligible deposits are protected by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme ('FSCS') and would be repaid up to £120,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

Limit of protection

£120,000 per depositor, per bank

cahoot, Santander Business and Santander Corporate & Commercial are all trading names of Santander UK plc.

All eligible deposits at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up to determine the coverage level.

For example, if you hold a savings account with £80,000 and a current account with £50,000, FSCS will pay you £120,000 and you may lose £10,000.

So the FSCS can pay you promptly, please make sure we have your up-to-date contact details, including your email address.

If you have a joint account with other people

For joint accounts, the limit of £120,000 applies to each depositor separately. For example, if there are 2 account holders, you'll each be entitled to £120,000 protection, giving a total of £240,000.

Your small business, limited company or charity will need to meet certain eligibility criteria to claim compensation with the FSCS. We assess eligibility on a case-by-case basis and it varies for different types of claim. Legal status will affect eligibility, e.g. if you're an individual or incorporated entity (such as a corporation or limited partnership).

Charitable status is never relevant to eligibility. To check if you're protected visit fscs.org.uk/making-a-claim/claims-process/small-business

Temporary high balances

If you have a 'temporary high balance' you might be entitled to more than £120,000 protection for 6 months from when the amount was first deposited or legally transferred. Temporary high balances are deposits connected with certain events, including:

- (a) transactions relating to the purchase and sale of your main home
- (b) major life events such as death, your marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, redundancy, disability, or incapacity
- (c) compensation for personal injuries or wrongful conviction.

How the FSCS will pay you

The FSCS will typically return deposits within 7 business days, by cheque or electronic payment into an alternative account. Payments may take longer in exceptional circumstances. For example, if there's a temporary high balance, or the deposit is held on behalf of underlying beneficiaries.

FSCS exclusions list

As set out in the Depositor Protection Information Sheet, deposits held by individuals and businesses will be generally eligible for FSCS protection up to the compensation limit. However, some exclusions do apply. Details of the most common exclusions are set out below. For full details of the exclusions, please see the Depositor Protection Part of the PRA Rulebook or fscs.org.uk

A deposit is excluded from protection if it meets any of the following criteria.

(1) The depositor is one of the following:

- credit institution
- financial institution
- investment firm
- insurance undertaking
- reinsurance undertaking
- collective investment undertaking
- pension or retirement fund
- public authority, other than a small local authority.

Note that:

- a) deposits held on behalf of underlying beneficiaries who are eligible for FSCS protection aren't excluded
 - b) personal pension schemes, stakeholder pension schemes or occupational pension schemes for micro, small and medium sized companies aren't excluded.
- (2) Deposits not held at a UK establishment of a bank, building society or credit union. Or, in the case of a bank, building society or credit union incorporated in the UK, it isn't held at an establishment in Gibraltar.
- (3) Deposits linked to money laundering. For example, it's transferred from an account held by someone who's been convicted of money laundering.
