We can reduce the yearly overdraft allowance if we're not satisfied with how you've managed your account.

If you started Year 2 of your Graduate Current Account on or before 30 June 2021, your Arranged Overdraft will remain interest-free up to £2,000.

For all accounts

If you have an Arranged Overdraft and you exceed your limit, you won't be charged any interest on the portion of your balance which is above your limit but Arranged Overdraft interest will still apply to the portion of your balance within your limit. Please visit santander.co.uk or ask in branch for the relevant rates and fees information for your account.

The conditions under which those costs may be changed

If overdraft interest rates or fees go up, we'll personally notify you at least 2 months before the change comes into effect. We'll only change our interest rates or fees in the circumstances set out in our General Terms and Conditions. We won't tell you when interest rates or fees on overdrafts go down.

Costs in the case of late payments

There are no charges for late or missed payments.

4 Other important legal aspects

Termination of the credit agreement

Overdrafts are repayable on demand. Subject to the Consumer Credit Act, if we do decide to remove or reduce your overdraft limit we will normally give you 30 days' personal notification of our intention.

Consultation with a credit reference agency

If we decide not to proceed with an agreement for an overdraft on the basis of information received from a credit reference agency, we will inform you of this and provide you with their name, address and telephone number.

If applicable, the period of time during which the creditor is bound by the pre-contractual information

This information is valid until you enter into an overdraft agreement with us.
