Section 10: Data Protection Statement

Introduction

My personal data is data which by itself or with other data available to you can be used to identify me. Santander UK Plc is the data controller. This data protection statement sets out how you'll use my personal data. I can contact your Data Protection Officer (DPO) at 201 Grafton Gate East, Milton Keynes, MK9 1AN if I have any questions.

Where there are two or more people named on this form, this data protection statement applies to each person separately.

The types of personal data you collect and use

Whether or not I become a customer, you'll use my personal data for the reasons set out below and to manage the account, policy or service on which I am registered as an Attorney. You'll collect most of this directly during the application journey. The sources of personal data collected indirectly are mentioned in this statement. The personal data you use may include:

- Full name and personal details including contact information (e.g. home address and address history, email address, home and mobile telephone numbers) and financial expected activity;
- Date of birth and/or age (e.g. to make sure that I'm eligible to apply);

- Biometric data (e.g. fingerprints and voice recordings for TouchID and voice recognition);
- Family, lifestyle or social circumstances if relevant to the product or service (e.g. the number of dependants I have);

- Information relating to my financial circumstances, including whether I am bankrupt, subject to a debt relief order, subject to a bankruptcy restriction order, or an interim debt relief restrictions order.

Providing my personal data

You'll tell me if providing some personal data is optional, including if you ask for my consent to process it. In all other cases I must provide my personal data so you can process my application (unless I'm a customer and you already hold my details).

Monitoring of communications

Subject to applicable laws, you'll monitor and record my calls, emails, text messages, social media messages and other communications in relation to my dealings with you. You'll do this for regulatory compliance, self-regulatory practices, crime prevention and detection, to protect the security of your communications systems and procedures, to check for obscene or profane content, for quality control and staff training, and when you need to see a record of what's been said. You may also monitor activities on the account where I/we are registered where necessary for these reasons and this is justified by your legitimate interests or your legal obligations.

 - c) To conduct regular searches of the Insolvency Register to ascertain whether I am bankrupt, subject to a debt relief order, subject to a bankruptcy restriction order, or an interim debt relief restrictions order;
 - d) For market research, analysis and developing statistics; and
 - e) You will not send marketing communications to me as a result of me acting as a third party on behalf of the account holder. Subject to my marketing preferences, I may continue to receive marketing communications in relation to any existing products or services that I have with you.
3. As necessary to comply with a legal obligation, e.g.:
- a) When I exercise my rights under data protection law and make requests;
 - b) For compliance with legal and regulatory requirements and related disclosures;

4. Based on my consent, e.g.:
- a) When I request you to disclose my personal data to other people or organisations such as a company handling a claim on my behalf, or otherwise agree to disclosures;
 - b) When you process any special categories of personal data about me at my request (e.g. my racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic data, biometric data, data concerning my health, sex life or sexual orientation); and
 - c) To send me marketing communications where you've asked for my consent to do so.

I'm free at any time to change my mind and withdraw my consent. The consequence might be that you can't do certain things for me.

Sharing of my personal data

Subject to applicable data protection law you may share my personal data with:

- The Santander group of companies* and associated companies in which you have shareholdings;
- Sub-contractors and other persons who help you provide your products and services;
- Companies and other persons providing services to you;
- Your legal and other professional advisors, including your auditors;
- Fraud Prevention agencies, when you register me as an Attorney and periodically during account service management whilst I am registered on the account;
- Government bodies and agencies in the UK and overseas (e.g. the Office of Public Guardian, Office of Care and Protection, Court of Protection and HMRC who may in turn share it with relevant overseas tax authorities and with regulators (e.g. the Prudential Regulation Authority, the Financial Conduct Authority, the Information Commissioner's Office);
- Courts, to comply with legal requirements, and for the administration of justice;

- In an emergency or to otherwise protect my vital interests;
- To protect the security or integrity of your business operations;
- To other parties connected to the account where I/we are registered on e.g. guarantors/Donor/Granter and other people named on the application including joint account holder who will see my/our transactions.
- When you restructure or sell your business or its assets or have a merger or re-organisation;
- Market research organisations who help to improve your products or services;
- Payment systems (e.g. Visa or Mastercard) if you issue cards linked to the accounts I/we are registered on as an attorney, who may transfer my personal data to others as necessary to operate my account and for regulatory purposes, to process transactions, resolve disputes and for statistical purposes, including sending my personal data overseas; and
- Anyone else where you have my consent or as required by law.

International transfers

My personal data may be transferred outside the UK and the European Economic Area. While some countries have adequate protections for personal data under applicable laws, in other countries steps will be necessary to ensure appropriate safeguards apply to it. These include imposing contractual obligations of adequacy or requiring the recipient to subscribe or be certified with an 'international framework' of protection. Further details can be found in the 'Using My Personal Data' booklet.

Identity verification and fraud prevention checks

The personal data you've collected from me when you register me as an Attorney on this account or policy or at any stage will be shared with fraud prevention agencies who will use it to prevent fraud and money-laundering and to verify my identity. If fraud is detected, I could be refused certain services, finance or employment in future. You may also search and use your internal records for these purposes. Further details on how my personal data will be used by you and these fraud prevention agencies, and my data protection rights, can be found in the 'Using My Personal Data' booklet.

Automated decision making and processing

Automated decision making involves processing my personal data without human intervention to evaluate my personal situation such as my economic position, personal preferences, interests or behaviour, for instance in relation to transactions on the account where I/we are registered on, my payments to other providers, and triggers and events such as account opening anniversaries and maturity dates. You may do this to decide what marketing communications and marketing in-branch is suitable for me, to analyse statistics and assess lending and insurance risks. All this activity is on the basis of your legitimate interests, to protect your business, and to develop and improve your products and services, except as follows; when you do automated decision making including profiling activity to assess lending and insurance risks, this will be performed on the basis of it being necessary to perform the contract with me or to take steps to enter into that contract. Further details can be found in the 'Using My Personal Data' booklet.

Criteria used to determine retention periods (whether or not I am registered as an Attorney)

The following criteria are used to determine data retention periods for my personal data:

- Retention in case of queries. You'll retain my personal data as long as necessary to deal with my queries (e.g. if my application is unsuccessful);
- Retention in case of claims. You'll retain my personal data for as long as I might legally bring claims against you; and
- Retention in accordance with legal and regulatory requirements. You'll retain my personal data after the account I am registered on, policy or service has been closed or has otherwise come to an end based on your legal and regulatory requirements.

My rights under applicable data protection law

My rights are as follows (noting that these rights don't apply in all circumstances and that data portability is only relevant from May 2018):

- The right to be informed about your processing of my personal data;
- The right to have my personal data corrected if it's inaccurate and to have incomplete personal data completed;
- The right to object to processing of my personal data;
- The right to restrict processing of my personal data;

- The right to request access to my personal data and information about how you process it;
- The right to move, copy or transfer my personal data ("data portability"); and
